FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Parishioners,

Farmers have an expectation that the fields they work will produce a harvest. This is not an unrealistic expectation. The fields not only yield the fruits of the land but also the fruits of the labor of the farmer.

This harvest time of the year is an appropriate time for us to reflect upon the yield of our spiritual lives. We have dedicated our lives to the Lord and we want to produce for the Lord. In this way, our lives are not unlike the crops we see growing in the fields. As the farmer watches and cares for the crops throughout the season, so, too, God watches and cares for us waiting for us to produce a rich harvest of praise, virtue, and good works.

Our first reading today tells of a man who meticulously cares for his vineyard, yet it yields an unusable harvest. Our Gospel tells of tenants who harvest grapes from the vineyard, but who refuse to give the owner his rightful share. In both cases the owner is deprived of the produce from his land.

It is God's plan that our lives bear a rich harvest. We are but stewards of our lives and of all that God has entrusted to us and he will one day ask for an accounting of our stewardship. It is important that God find us to be responsible stewards who give a joyful, bountiful return to him. We cannot be like the vines that grow wild despite the care and pruning of the Lord or like the tenants who refuse to return to the Lord his proper due. Our response must be one of faithful stewardship in gratitude to the Lord for his blessings.

Faithful stewardship calls us to come before the Lord in praise and thanksgiving. To say thank you is one of the lessons we learn early in our relationships with people. It is an important response to God who gives us everything that we possess: our lives, our abilities, and our possessions. In prayers of praise and thanksgiving we acknowledge the goodness of God and his generosity to us. This is the heart of our worship each time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist. The very word Eucharist comes from the Greek and means thanksgiving.

We cannot stop at gratitude. The second step of faithful stewardship is to return a portion of our time, talent, and treasure to the Lord. God has given us one hundred percent of what we have. We, in response, must be willing to make a fair return to the Lord.

What kind of a return is fitting for the Lord? We return to the Lord when we support the work of the Church, financially, prayerfully, and through service to one another. We return to the Lord when we assist and support others, beyond the Church, without receiving any personal return. We return to the Lord when we cultivate virtues within ourselves, such as honesty, truthfulness, justice, and humility. It is imperative that we respond as faithful stewards to the Lord's goodness. It is by bearing a rich harvest for the Lord that we will be gathered into the kingdom of God.

All God's Blessings,
Msgr. Maresca

FOCUS:

If we remain in Christ we will bear fruit.

Both the first reading and the Gospel describe the people of Israel as a vineyard. God has given them everythinbg they need, sending prophets and even His own Son. Yet the vines have yielded wild grapes, and the prophets and the Son have been killed. The Kingdom of God will be taken away from those who reject Christ and given instead to believers in Christ, who will produce its fruit.

REMINDER

Just a reminder Church opens at 7:30AM on Saturday's and Sunday's. With the cold weather approaching, no one wants to be standing in the cold or rain waiting for the doors to open.

Thank you.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament takes place before the 9:00AM Mass. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed at 8:00AM each morning, Monday through Saturday, giving parishioners an opportunity for private prayer before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. At 8:30AM the rosary will be prayed by parishioners before the Blessed Sacrament. At 8:50AM the Blessed Sacrament will be reposed. Jesus calls us to perseverance in prayer. "Pray without ceasing." "Watch and pray." Eucharistic adoration helps us discover the Real Presence of Christ.

What a wonderful way to begin our day praying before the Blessed Sacrament in silence or praying the Holy Rosary.

Please make every effort to take advantage of this time with the Lord. We are living in challenging times and we all need the Lord to strengthen our faith and give us the courage to live each day.

MASS ATTENDANCE

Last Wednesday, September 27th, Bishop Brennan met with all the priests of the Diocese. His presentation dealt with a number of issues facing our parishes today as opposed to twenty years ago. He spoke about mass attendance, how it has declined throughout the Diocese. One of the requests was to begin printing the mass attendance in the bulletin each week to let parishioners see the situation. As you know we have been printing the average mass attendance for the month. That will be changing to show each week our mass attendance. The Bishop also spoke about publishing the weekly collection, again to let parishioners know what the finances are of the parish. We have been putting our collections in the bulletin weekly since I became your pastor. These two actions will give our parishioners a clearer picture of what is happening in our parish.

Our heartfelt sympathy to all her family and friends.

Rest in Peace Anna.
