Today's Readings

The Baptism of the Lord

Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7
Acts 10:34-38
Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

Now the people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Messiah. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the holy Spirit and fire. After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying,* heaven was opened and the holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."
(Luke 3:15-16, 21-22)

Readings for the Week

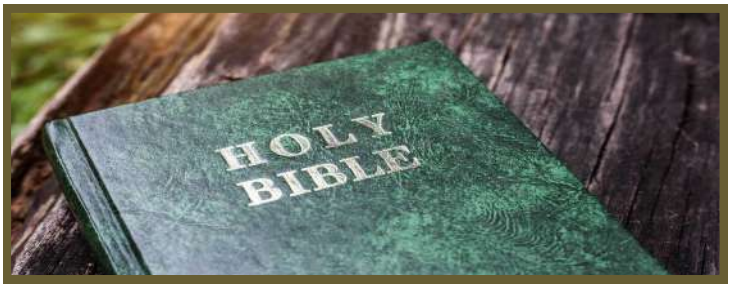
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 62:1-5
Corinthians 12:4-1
John 2:1-11



FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Parishioners,

In today's Gospel we hear of the act that would mark the beginning of the public ministry of Jesus. John had been proclaiming the words of the prophets to the people and teaching the lessons of charity, repentance, truthfulness, honesty and justice in everyday life. John insisted that he was not the messiah promised by the prophets, but that the messiah was coming soon. Jesus, blending into the crowd, joined John's audience and listened to the words of this man who had been living in the desert. Jesus, like many others present, waded into the Jordan River to be baptized. Luke tells us that while Jesus was at prayer in the Jordan the sky opened, the Holy Spirit descended on him and a voice from heaven declared, You are my beloved Son. To those present it became obvious: this was not an ordinary man.

We know that Jesus did not need baptism in the way that we need it as a sign of repentance. The Catechism tells us that Jesus allowed himself to be numbered among sinners to show us that he will be the source of the Holy Spirit for all humankind (536). It is through Baptism that we initially receive the grace of the Holy Spirit and are joined to Christ as members of his Church.

The baptism of Jesus in the Jordan marked the beginning of his public ministry and mission: to reveal God the Father to the people and invite them to accept a way of life that would last forever. Jesus fortified himself with forty days of prayer in the desert as he accepted his mission. Only then did He begin to invite others to join him in the work of spreading the good news of salvation in God.

Our mission as baptized Catholics is to share in the mission that Jesus accepted. We are to pass on the good news that we have received: Jesus is the way to eternal life in union with the Father and the Spirit. Just as prayer was essential in the ministry of Jesus, it is essential in our own lives, too. And just as Jesus formed a community of believers around himself and we need community as well. It is with these things in place that we can live the commandments to love God first and love neighbor as we love ourselves. We, too, can accomplish the mission we have accepted and reap the reward of eternal life. This is what Jesus promised to those who are faithful. This is what we believe and embrace each day as Christians.

All God's Blessings,
Msgr. Maresca

The Baptism of the Lord

The Feast of Saint Anthony, Abbot

The life of Anthony will remind many people of Saint Francis of Assisi. At 20, Anthony was so moved by the Gospel message, "Go, sell what you have, and give to [the] poor" (Mark 10:21b), that he actually did just that with his large inheritance. He is different from Francis in that most of Anthony's life was spent in solitude. He saw the world completely covered with snares, and gave the Church and the world the witness of solitary asceticism, great personal mortification and prayer. But no saint is antisocial, and Anthony drew many people to himself for spiritual healing and guidance. At 54, he responded to many requests and founded a sort of monastery of scattered cells. Again, like Francis, he had great fear of "stately buildings and well-laden tables." At 60, he hoped to be a martyr in the renewed Roman persecution of 311, fearlessly exposing himself to danger while giving moral and material support to those in prison. At 88, he was fighting the Arian heresy, that massive trauma from which it took the Church centuries to recover. "The mule kicking over the altar" denied the divinity of Christ. Anthony is associated in art with a T-shaped cross, a pig and a book. The pig and the cross are symbols of his valiant warfare with the devil—the cross his constant means of power over evil spirits, the pig a symbol of the devil himself. The book recalls his preference for "the book of nature" over the printed word. Anthony died in solitude at age 105. In an age that smiles at the notion of devils and angels, a person known for having power over evil spirits must at least make us pause. And in a day when people speak of life as a "rat race," one who devotes a whole life to solitude and prayer points to an essential of the Christian life in all ages. Anthony's hermit life reminds us of the absoluteness of our break with sin and the totality of our commitment to Christ. Even in God's good world, there is another world whose false values tempt us.

Prayer: O God, who brought the Abbot Saint Anthony to serve you through a wondrous way of life in the desert, grant, through his intercession, that, denying ourselves, we may always love you above all things. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever Amen.

Remember in your prayers all those in our parish who are sick, that they may find health and comfort:

Awyn Profit, Jack Orlando, Steven Joyce, Judy Hanley-Brickner, John Wrenn, Augustin Cisneros, James Nunez, Vincent Wytak, John & Carol Ross, Jeffrey Hyans, Marie LoVolpe, Jessica St. Preux, Al Ciani, Alesha Moses, Nancy McCaffrey, Christopher Wojtalik, Theresa Pacheco, William Goss, Luke Pacheco, Vincenza Papa, Jim Schneggenburger, Anthony Criscuolo, Samantha O'Sullivan, Marilyn Miller, Pat Gravino, John Carmody, Rosario Duran, Vivian Papa, Joel Steinmann, Anna Governali, Tim Graham, Antonio Postiglione, Mario Tamburello, Christopher Araimo, Charles Principato, Jim Kreitler, Humberto Cordova, John Schakir, Margaret Culhane, Benedicto Randazzo, Angelo Niakas, Peter Lopez, Rick Simonsen, Aubrey Madden, Madison Millett, Leonardo Di Marco and Michelle Yashita, the Polychronakis Family & Victor Di Donato.

Also remember in your prayers all the deceased of the Parish. Please remember to continue to pray for vocations to the priesthood, religious life, diaconate, and married life.

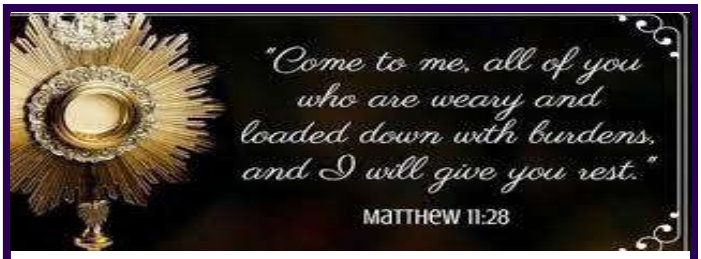
Parish Mission Statement

St. Francis of Assisi Parish is a Catholic community that is centered in Jesus, gathers in worship and witnesses the Gospel message. The parish values and welcomes each person's gift of time, talent and treasure. As a faith-filled community, we are committed to minister to the spiritual, educational and material needs of all people.

FOCUS:

God seeks out the sinner and loves us unconditionally.

Today's feast is another "epiphany"-a revelation of who Jesus is. By submitting Himself to John's baptism (a baptism of repentance), Jesus, who is sinless, draws near to sinners and joins Himself with them. The voice of the Father saying, You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased consoles us, because we who are joined to Christ in baptism are made beloved children of the Father. These truths reveal God's goodness and His unconditional love for us.



Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament takes place before the 9:00AM Mass. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed at 8:00AM each morning, Monday through Saturday, giving parishioners an opportunity for private prayer before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. At 8:30AM the rosary will be prayed by parishioners. At 8:50AM the Blessed Sacrament will be reposed. Jesus calls us to perseverance in prayer. "Pray without ceasing." "Watch and pray." Eucharistic adoration helps us discover the Real Presence of Christ.

What a wonderful way to begin our day praying before the Blessed Sacrament in silence or praying the Holy Rosary.

Please make every effort to take advantage of this time with the Lord. We are living in challenging times and we all need the Lord to strengthen our faith and give us the courage to live each day.

Dear Fellow Parishioners,
Since 2014 alone, the Associated Vincentian Charities of Brooklyn Donation Program has given back over $400,000 to local parishes throughout the New York Metropolitan Area. Your donation has helped many individuals in need in your neighborhood. Only through the generosity of countless parishioners are we able to make a difference. Please help us to continue to make a difference by spreading the word to anyone you know that would like to donate a vehicle, running or not leaving a review on Google, and liking us on Social Media. Together we can continue our mission in helping the less fortunate.
