Today's Readings

Third Sunday of Lent

Exodus 17:3-7
Romans 5:1-2,5-8
John 4:5-15,19b-26,39a,40-42

A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, "Give me a drink," you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water. The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give will never be thirsty. The water that I will give them will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life. The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." (John 4:7-15)

Jesus speaks to the woman at the well.

FOCUS:

We are invited to bring our thirst to God.

In the sacred season of Lent, we are invited to acknowledge our thirst and our need for God. Let us not mask it or hide it with distractions or goods which cannot ultimately satisfy. We are invited to bring our thirst to God and, like the Samaritan woman, simply ask: Lord, give me this water, the water which will make us never thirst again.

St. Francis of Assisi Scripture Study

Thursdays from 7:20PM-8:50PM,
Rectory Basement, St. Joseph Room

Dear SFA Family & Friends,
You are invited to join us on Thursday, March 12, in the St. Joseph Room of the Rectory from 7:20pm to 8:50pm. Our study for this week is Hebrews 10:19—11:39, "A Call to Persevere in Faith."

"Therefore, brothers, since through the blood of Jesus we have confidence of entrance into the sanctuary by the new and living way He opened for us through the veil, that is, His flesh, and since we have "a great priest over the house of God," let us approach with a sincere heart and in absolute trust, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed in pure water." (Hebrews 10:19-22)

Grow in Love & Knowledge of Scripture.
All are invited and all are welcome.

The Gospel readings and study are conducted using the Little Rock Scripture Study program. Study booklets will be provided. If you are interested in joining the Study Group, please call the Rectory Office at (718)-728-7801.

The Hengl Family

From the Pastor's Desk:

My Dear Parishioners,

Just a few decades ago it would have seemed strange to see bottles of water for sale. Now people can buy bottled water practically everywhere. It has become a billion dollar industry. That is because we all need water. We all must drink water to strengthen us and to maintain life. In our thirst, nothing is better for us than water.

Water plays an important part in Scripture, and today we hear in the Gospel of a Samaritan woman coming to the well to get water to satisfy her physical thirst. Little did she know that she would come in contact with the Fountain of Salvation, Jesus Christ. Water is an appropriate image to use when speaking about Jesus. Jesus is essential for everlasting life. Jesus satisfies our thirst for salvation and for a meaningful relationship with God. These are truths that are clearly conveyed through today's account of Jesus and the Samaritan woman.

It is Jesus who instills in the heart of this woman a spring of water welling up to eternal life. The words of Jesus are the instruments by which this spring is tapped in her heart, giving her salvation and life through faith in him. Words expressing her faith flow from her mouth, not only in her conversation with Jesus, but with those in her community, as well, as she calls people to listen to him. And, as they listen to Him, many come to believe in him.

But the thirst of the Samaritans is not only thirst of this gospel account. Remember, Jesus comes to the well thirsty. His thirst is not just for water. Jesus thirsted to bring the woman and her townsfolk to salvation. This thirst was quenched as the waters of faith flowed into the hearts of the Samaritan people.

Today's readings give us hope and peace. They tell us, as St. Augustine has said, that God thirsts that we may thirst for him (CCC 2560). That thirst was revealed to us when He sent his Son to save us. And Jesus is the perfect mediator, joining God's thirst for us and ours for him, and satisfying us through faith in Jesus.

Today's readings call to mind a basic physical fact: people need water to live. As Faithful followers of Christ, we know a basic spiritual fact: our souls need Christ to bring us to salvation and eternal life. We can be grateful that the Church leads us into the desert of Lent in order that we may remember and contemplate that it is Jesus, who provides for us a fountain of love, a way to salvation. It is in Him that we come to know just how much God loves us.

A Blessed Lenten Journey,
Msgr. Maresca

A Prayer for Lent

Prayer Before a Crucifix

Said to have been written by St. Francis of Assisi, a plenary indulgence is granted each Friday of Lent to the faithful who, after receiving Holy Communion, devoutly recite this prayer before an image of Christ crucified. On other days of the year, the indulgence is partial.

Look down upon me, good and gentle Jesus
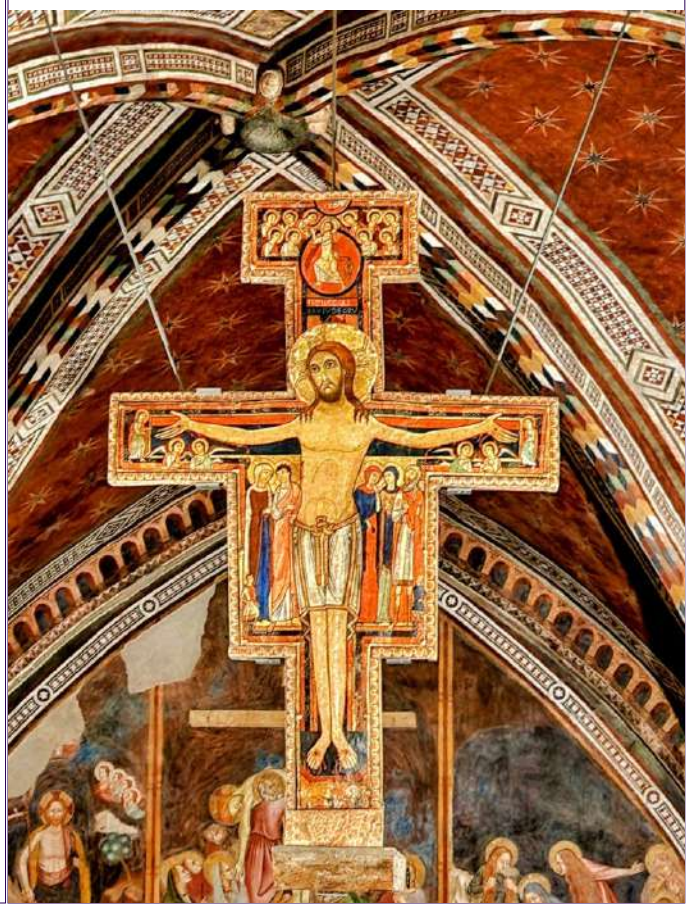
while before Your face I humbly kneel, and, with burning soul, pray and beseech You to fix deep in my heart lively sentiments of Faith, Hope, and Charity; true contrition for my sins,
and a firm purpose of amendment,
while I contemplate, with great love and tender pity,
Your five most precious wounds,
pondering over them within me
and calling to mind the words which David,
Your prophet, said to You, my Jesus:
"They have pierced my hands and my feet,
They have numbered all my bones."
Amen.



Eucharistic Adoration Monday through Saturday 8:00AM to 8:50AM

Eucharistic Adoration takes place Monday through Saturday, from 8:00AM to 8:50AM. As Pope St. John Paul II has said, "Christian life is expressed in the fulfilling of the greatest Commandment, that is to say, in the love of God and neighbor, and this love finds its source in the Blessed Sacrament….Eucharistic worship is therefore precisely the expression of that love which is the authentic and deepest characteristic of the Christian vocation. This worship springs from the love and serves the love to which we are all called in Jesus Christ. A living fruit of this worship is the perfecting of the image of God that we bear within us….We must always have this reality before our eyes."

We encourage everyone to make an effort to spend time in the presence of our Lord. The Blessings are countless.

Receiving Holy Communion

For those who have difficulty walking up the aisle to receive Holy Communion, may I suggest that you sit in the front row on either side to save yourself some steps. The priest, deacon, or minister will come down to you in the pew and give you Holy Communion. However, if for some reason you need to sit towards the back of the Church, please let the usher know and they will inform the priest, deacon, or minister, and we will come back to you to give you Holy Communion when we finish those in line.

Thanks,
Msgr. Maresca

WEEK FOUR OF LENT

St. Francis of Assisi Parish
Msgr. Ralph J. Maresca V.F., Pastor

LENT 2026

= a day of fasting and abstinence from meat = a day of abstinence from meat

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
February "Lent is the liturgical season of forty days which begins with Ash Wednesday and ends with the celebration of the Paschal Mystery (Easter Triduum). Lent is the primary penitential season in the Church's liturgical year, reflecting the forty days Jesus spent in the desert in fasting and prayer" (Catechism of the Catholic Church).			18 Ash Wednesday Attend Mass and receive the cross of ashes — a sign of humility and repentance.	19 Fast from social media for one evening each week.	20 Remember to abstain from meat today. Pray for those who can't afford to have meat.	21 Spend five minutes in silent prayer each morning or night during Lent.
22 Stay after Mass and pray for a spiritually fruitful Lent.	23 Pray the Morning Offering before checking your phone.	24 "Peace begins with a smile" (Mother Teresa). Resolve to smile at everyone.	25 Pray for one specific person by name today.	26 Worry closes the heart. Replace it with trust, "Jesus, I trust in You."	27 Even when things go wrong, be patient, starting with yourself.	28 Fulfill a commitment or promise you've been putting off.
1 March Read Matthew 17:1-9. Where does God want to transform your heart, prayer, and life?	2 Today, pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, who always need our prayers.	3 Read the daily Gospel and meditate on one line that stands out to you.	4 Today, choose silence instead of complaining.	5 Pray for Christians experiencing persecution. Pray for a conversion of heart for the persecutors.	6 Return love for Love. Visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, where He waits in love.	7 Avoid gossip and change the subject when it starts. If it's untrue, unkind, or confidential, don't say it.
8 Read John 4:5–42. Where do you go when life feels messy? What if Jesus met you there?	9 If your responsibilities permit it, choose one weekday this week to attend Daily Mass.	10 Practice patience intentionally with one difficult person.	11 Skip a meal and donate the money saved from fasting to the poor box.	12 First thing today, tell God, "Thy Will be done!" — and really mean it!	13 Give up a small luxury - drive-thru coffee, streaming, take-out meals - just for today for God.	14 Do a hidden act of service without seeking thanks.
15 Laetare Sunday The priest wears rose for the halfway point of Lent. Enjoy a small treat to celebrate.	16 Holy Week and Easter are busy times for parishes and ask how you can help.	17 St. Patrick's Day Pray for missionaries and catechists who, like St. Patrick, bring the faith to every corner of the world.	18 Experience God's mercy and attend Confession this week.	19 St. Joseph's Day Say an extra prayer for your father. Don't forget the priests — spiritual fathers.	20 Buy food or hygiene items for a local pantry.	21 Take a mini-retreat. Reserve time to silence your phone, light a candle, and be with Jesus.
22 Stay after Mass and pray for the intentions of the Pope and your bishop.	23 Give the gift of a spiritual bouquet — a note recording prayers said for someone who needs them.	24 Think before you speak, especially before responding in annoyance or anger. recall the presence of God.	25 The Annunciation We celebrate Mary's "yes," which opened the way for Christ's coming. Pray the Rosary in her honor.	26 Set out a box and fill it with gently used items, books, or clothes. When it's full, bring it to its destination.	27 Abstain from recreational screen-use between 12:00pm and 3:00pm in honor of Jesus' final hours on the Cross.	28 Visit a church or chapel for 10 minutes of quiet if possible.
29 Palm Sunday Read Matthew 27:11-54, accompanying Jesus through His trial, Passion, and Death.	30 This whole week, practice the Heroic Minute and get up the moment your alarm rings.	31 Say grace slowly and intentionally, with gratitude, before meals today.	1 April Today is the day, Judas plotted to betray Christ. Take time to seek forgiveness or to extend it, if needed.	2 Holy Thursday Visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Thank Him for the Eucharist, the Mass, and the Priesthood.	3 Good Friday Pray the Stations of the Cross. Your presence and love today consoled Him then.	4 Holy Saturday Thank God for His blessings this Lent. Consider which practices you will continue.

Lenten Prayer for Spiritual Renewal

God, heavenly Father, look upon me and hear my prayer during this holy Season of Lent. By the good works You inspire, help me to discipline my body and to be renewed in spirit.

Without You I can do nothing. By Your Spirit help me to know what is right and to be eager in doing Your will. Teach me to find new life through penance. Keep me from sin, and help me live by Your commandment of love. God of love, bring me back to You. Send Your Spirit to make me strong in faith and active in good works. May my acts of penance bring me Your forgiveness, open my hear to Your love, and prepare me for the coming feast of the Resurrection of Jesus.

Lord, during this Lenten Season, nourish me with Your Word of life and make me one with You in love and prayer.

Fill my heart with Your love and keep me faithful to the Gospel of Christ. Give me the grace to rise above my human weakness. Give me new life by Your Sacraments, especially the Mass.

Father, our source of life, I reach out with joy to grasp Your hand; let me walk more readily in Your ways. Guide me in Your gentle mercy, for left to myself I cannot do Your Will.

Father of love, source of all blessings, help me to pass from my old life of sin to the new life of grace. Prepare me for the glory of Your Kingdom. I ask this though our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer is Talking to God

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18: ""Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."."

Prayer isn't just for church—it's a way to talk to God anytime, anywhere! We can thank Him, ask for help, or just sit in His presence. Jesus prayed often, and during Lent, we can try to pray more, too.

Reflection Question: When can I take a moment in my day to talk to God?
